HELPING PUT EASTERN CONNECTICUT TO WORK

Finding Job Opportunities

What do computer software engineers and home health aides have in common? They're some of the hottest jobs in the state. The Connecticut Department of Labor has a list of occupations that it considers to have the most growth potential over the next few years, and it's a great resource for anyone considering a career move. Windham Hospital Expansion

Health care and construction jobs are coming to the Greater Windham area. State funding will help support the construction of a 30,000 square-foot medical center adjacent to Windham Hospital. The project will serve patients throughout Eastern Connecticut as well as create hundreds of high-quality jobs. The groundbreaking is expected later this summer!

Helping Put EASTERN CONNECTICUT TO WORK

High-quality jobs are difficult to find in this challenging economic climate. That's why Windham Hospital's expansion—made possible by a new partnership with the state—is so important.

Read this mailing to learn more about the project and opportunities outside of the health care industry. I've included useful links and details on the fastest-growing occupations in Eastern Connecticut.
